FESTIVE SUPPER:

The letters about the Festive Supper in the Village Hall on Saturday 1st December have now gone out to the new residents of the village.

The letter informs about the complimentary tickets to new residents who arrived during the last year. Those new residents are given the free tickets from the committee.

We sincerely hope that we haven't missed out any new residents! If you have arrived in the village to live since last December and have not received a letter then please inform Dorothy at the Post Office or Helen or Liz at the shop.
Our apologies if we didn't know about you!

Dick Barton

Maureen, Amanda and Jonathan would like to thank everybody who attended the funeral of Dick Barton at the church on the 2nd October and who added to the collection in aid of the memorial hall. Dick had lived in the village since the 1972 and will be sadly missed.

Parking in the Village

Alongside improvements to the A1, residents will have noticed that parking in our Village is increasingly becoming an issue. The line of sight has worsened when approaching Middleton Tyas from the A1, traffic coming from the Services has increased, and HGVs parking opposite the slip road leading to Morris Grange causes problems. An accident involving several vehicles happened on Wednesday 14th November and we feel that this was hardly a surprising event. Some three years ago, a survey was undertaken of residents living towards the end of the Village asking for their views on the implementation of double-yellow lines. In the light of the many changes, another has now been requested along with one for residents living along School Bank where parking creates hazardous driving conditions. We would like the 30mph temporary speed limit imposed during the roadworks made permanent rather than reverting to the original 40mph as is the current situation.

Speed Awareness

Moving along from the above, two daylight teams have now been formed in order to undertake speed checks in the Village. These checks will take place after our volunteers have been trained - this is imminent. Motorists will have 100m warning that these checks are taking place. You heard it here first!

Burglaries in the Village

In our peaceful Village, we saw two burglaries in the last month. This is an extraordinary occurrence and although the Police reassured us that crime is on the decrease more generally in Richmondshire, we certainly do need to be very vigilant here in Middleton Tyas. Anyone seeing anything suspicious or unusual, or seeing unexpected vehicles or individuals around the Village are encouraged to ring 101 and talk to the Police.

Parish Council Precept

The Parish Council recommended a small increase to our precept for the next financial year. This will mean that householders in the Village will see an increase of around £4 per annum in that portion of their Council Tax relating specifically the areas managed by the Parish Council. Without this increase, our budget for 2019/20 indicates that we would have a deficit of around £600 with very little contingency for unforeseen events. Clearly, this is not a sustainable position. Whilst we appreciate that any rise in Council Tax is unwelcome, we are committed to trying to maintain and improve the Village for everyone. We would particularly encourage residents wishing to discuss this further to attend the next Parish Council meeting which will now be at 7pm on the 6th December in the Memorial Hall. This date has been changed, so please note it carefully in your diaries.

Minutes of all our meetings (together with associated papers) are placed on the Village website once they have been approved by the Council - usually at the following meeting. We would like to encourage residents to come to our Parish Council meetings when they can. All Residents are welcome - we meet next on the 6th December at 7pm in the Memorial Hall.

On behalf of all your Parish Councillors, I would like to take the opportunity to wish you and those you love a Happy and Peaceful Season.

Cllr Josephine Collis, Middleton Tyas Parish Council

Thank you to everyone who had a go at our bingo game. It was close at the end with two people on only one number left – neither of which was me. But congrats to the winner anyway! And because I had to buy a whole heap of cards to do it, it'll be back next year...

Thank you also to those people who gave us their time to help us count stock – it took us a record breaking one hour this year with a team of nine.

Coming very soon, if it isn't in the shop already, is our Christmas raffle. For £1 a ticket you could win either a hamper or a gorgeous Christmas cake made and donated by Mary Parvin. First ticket picked gets the choice.

Yes, I mentioned the Christmas word. Haven't had any dreams about it yet, but it is galloping towards us faster than Poldark can cross a cliff on his horse. So on that note, here is what you can find in the shop this year. Yes, I'm going to list some stock and it isn't going to rhyme either – in fact, absolutely no silliness whatsoever.

CREATE YOUR OWN HAMPER ... Oh the weather outside is frightful, but inside the shop for £3 we'll provide the basket and the talented Mrs Croft will wrap it beautifully once you've filled it with whatever goodies you want from the shop.

CHRISTMAS WELCOME RINGS AND TABLE DECORATIONS ... I'm dreaming of a gorgeous welcome ring hanging on my door at the amazing price of £25, made to order by another talented lady in the village. Clare is donating the initial £5 deposit to the shop. Order forms are available now in the shop.

STOCKING FILLER ... Rudolph the red nosed reindeer had a hot chocolate every night before bed, so what better gift than a Petite and Sweet hot chocolate swirling stick and mini marshmallows? Dorothy approved with a 'mmm yum'.

FOR THE BISCUIT LOVER ... We three Kings of Orient are looking forward to a nice cuppa and a biscuit when we get home. What better biccy than a Viennese whirl or a butterscotch crunch or even a ginger crunch from the lovely Borders selection box.

FOR THE BEER LOVER ... Good King Wenceslas looked out and said hither page and bring me my ale, so we sent him over three Yorkshire beers all handsomely presented in an 'Ey Up' gift box for only £7.20.

MARK DENTON YORKSHIRE CALENDAR ... On the first day of Christmas my true love gave to me a Yorkshire calendar so I could see when the second day of Christmas was. Full of his usual stunning pics of bits of Yorkshire and if you buy the ironically intended 'It's Grim Up North' version, you'll get humour on every page too. £7.99 and going so fast we've already had to restock.

MIDDLETON TYAS BAGS, MOUSE MATS, T-TOWELS, MUGS AND CARDS ... Sleigh bells ring but they still don't help you decide what to buy someone when you're a bit stuck. The Middleton Tyas range, featuring digital artwork by a former local, makes a good gift and all items are reasonably priced for what they are. Unfortunately the supplier isn't doing the cute tea caddies this year, but we do have some collector's tins for those people who like to put things away in little tins. Like me. And then promptly forget where those things are, but ah well. The cards are blank and useful when you need to send a non-Christmas Christmas card.

FOR THE BUBBLE LOVER'S STOCKING ... Dashing through the snow, I've got some in my stocking .. oh hang on, yey, it's a mini bottle of Prosecco.

For your Christmas dinner ... The holly and the stuffing – we have Gordon Rhodes' A Jolly Fine Stuffing mix, gluten free, and good old Paxo sage and onion.

VEG ORDERS FROM CARRICKS ... God rest ye merry gentlemen and ladies planning your menus, and look out for when you need to get your veg orders to the shop by.

AND THE REST ... Hark! The Herald Angels sing of all the other bits you may need and that we have. Foil, Mrs Darlington's cranberry sauce, Brymor icecream, wrapping paper, Christmas cards, nibbles and so on.

The sale of books, produce, kindling, DVDs and CDs in the bus shelter during October raised £75.22 thank you to all our supporters. All books, DVDs and CDs are priced at 50p.

Good quality fiction books are always welcome. Please leave them on the benches in the bus shelter.

Remembrance 2018

A big thanks to all who supported the weekend.

Thanks to those who dressed the village ahead of the weekend, who kindly donated memorabilia including "Dennis" the lorry, those who came along to the exhibition, the service, the pie and pea supper and helped on both days and to tidy up afterwards.

The amazing sum of £415 was contributed to "Help for Heroes" from proceeds on both days. Thank you to all.

Church Cleaning:

Thanks to all who have volunteered to clean St Andrew's.

December: Jo Spence

January: Mr and Mrs Gentry

February: Mrs Osbaldeston

Freecycle

I would like to let people in the Parish know that there is now a new recycling group available and open to all. The group covers the whole of the Richmondshire District including but not limited to Richmond, Catterick, Scorton, Colburn, Hipswell, Lower Wensleydale, Middleham, Leyburn, Yoredale, Hawes, High Abbotside, Upper Swaledale, Lower Swaledale, Arkengarthdale, Gilling West, Melsonby, Croft and Middleton Tyas.

Richmondshire Freecycle provides recycling opportunities for a wide variety of things to help reduce landfill. This can be particularly convenient to people who have items they no longer need as these can be collected from them free of charge. It can also be helpful for people looking out for things they would like as they could collect from others free of charge.

If you or anyone you know would like to know more about the group please do not hesitate to take a look at the website <https://groups.freecycle.org/group/RichmondshireUK/description>

The Freecycle Network - groups.freecycle.org

The Freecycle Network is a grassroots and entirely nonprofit movement of people who are giving (and getting) stuff for free in their own towns. It's all about reuse and keeping good stuff out of landfills. groups.freecycle.org

Ore-some Copper Belles WI

Well the party season is nearly upon us, so this month's workshop was gratefully received. We were joined by hair artist, Clair Boddy and make-up artist, Beth Speed (makemeupbybeth) along with their lovely assistant, Lisa. With festive events in mind, Clair and Beth showed us how to transform that little black dress hanging in our wardrobes into three different looks. By changing the make-up, hair design and accessories, we were guided through developing our look of smart daytime work wear into stylish attire for ladies who lunch and into a glam outfit for a party night out. Clair showed us how to curl our hair using hair straighteners and create different hair up styles. She gave us lots of useful advice on using products and hair tools and even allowed us to have a go. Beth talked us through the make-up techniques she used to create the various looks and advised us on the best products to use. It was great to have that opportunity to ask all those questions about hair and make-up that I have pondered over for years. I felt really informed and ready to put what I had learned into practice. All I need now is a party. Speaking of which, our Christmas celebration is on Tuesday 11th December at the Shoulder of Mutton. Some places are still available so get in touch if you want to come. Final payments can be given on the day (Christmas Fayre menu - 3 course £22.95, 2 courses £16.95). Winners of our Logo and Motto competition will also be announced at the Christmas dinner.

Join us on Tuesday 8th January for our first Annual General Meeting. Vote for committee members and enjoy a social evening. Meeting starts at 7:15 pm in the Middleton Tyas Memorial Hall.

A Christmas Tail, by a rectory canine.

I like to think that Christmas promotes love and inclusion. Christmas adverts portray family and encourage generosity to those both near and far, loved and unknown, and rightly so. Christmas is after all the celebration of a human family and the birth of the Christian family. The connection between people is memory; it doesn't take long for someone to say. "Do you remember when...." And so, today I am going to tell you a great remembering of the canine clan, one which has been passed from snout to snout throughout the annals of hounds, ever to be remembered and embellished over the years....

Once upon a time, a very long time ago in the history of a canine, there was a white wirey Jack Russell terrier called Hardy. He was cunning and very infrequently abashed by anything. He was a master of thievery, could excavate the back lawn faster than you can say "do we have moles?", and could hunt out a sausage sandwich within a 2 mile radius.... Which leads me to the tale of Hardy and the Christmas Lunch Incident.

It had snowed heavily on the edge of the Pennines. The biscuit-buyer had taken to conducting services in her wellies, and the younger members of the canine pack argued over who should sit closest to the fire. The back garden was under several terrier depths of snow, which made using the facilities a cold, if not dangerous expedition. But Hardy, was hardy. He fearlessly launched himself out of the back door, diving into snowdrifts and would disappear, only to reappear 10 minutes later looking like the abominable snow dog. He would then fly into the lounge and shake off the accumulated white stuff which eventually melted into very cold, wet puddles, for the stocking-footed biscuit-buyer to tread in. In truth they were happy times and a source endless amusement.

Christmas morning brought the expectation of a traditional Victorian Christmas, as the snow crashed lemming-like from the sky and the church bells called the faithful to a chilly celebration of Christ's birth. The snow muted the sounds of modern life, but failed to completely eradicate the curses from the biscuit-buyer as she attempted the 200-yard trip from vicarage to church in a cassock and muck boots.

Eventually the promising aromas of Christmas lunch began to fill the vicarage. Thoughts of food, cooked by a Responsible Adult who could produce food from the oven as it should taste like, cheered the heart of the biscuit-buyer who was de-frosting in the study, and fascinated the snouts of expectant canines..... Christmas had arrived.

Unfortunately, Christmas hadn't arrived soon enough for one canine. Hardy was hungry. And when Hardy was hungry, Hardy hunted, raided and usually achieved his goal. However, on this particular Christmas morning, Hardy had been banned from the kitchen whilst the Responsible Adult nursed the oven and the gin bottle. And so, muttering the words "I am just going outside and I may be some time", he disappeared off into the inclement weather.

Two gin and tonics later as the biscuit-buyer's socks steamed in front of the fire, she muttered, "Where's Hardy?" The canine fraternity feigned ignorance. The Responsible Adult scuttled back to the kitchen. The biscuit-buyer sighed, briefly considered forgetting the absence of Hardy, but decided that although Hardy was hardy he wasn't that hardy. Pulling on her wellies, she disappeared into the garden repeating the same words as her quarry. Following the path through the snow, she reached the garden wall and looked at the quickly disappearing trail as the snow fell.

To cut what is already a long story short, legend has it that Hardy came trotting back, wagging his tail about an hour later, still white and covered in snow, apart from his snout: it was covered in gravy. The aroma of roast turkey mixed with soggy doggy infused the air as he settled in front of the fire. No-one knows whose Christmas lunch Hardy filched. And the biscuit-buyer? She doesn't like to talk about it.....

Wishing you love, joy and peace this Christmastide.

Flower Rota:

We do not have flowers in church during Advent and as there is no service on Christmas Day or the Sunday afterwards there is no need to have our usual gathering to decorate our church for Christmas but I would be very grateful if anyone would like to volunteer for all or part of January. Please ring me on 377228 if you could help out with this. Thank you. Sara
