

Phone 999 for Ambulance first

VETS No: 01325 952800

Middleton Tyas

www.communityheartbeat.org.uk

As you already know, we have a defibrillator installed outside the Memorial Hall which is accessible 24/7. We also have a team of local volunteers (VETS) who will help you to use the defibrillator if you need assistance. Now the two are linked up because we have a dedicated VETS telephone number, shown above. Ring this number from any mobile or landline and it will automatically ring round the dozen or so volunteers and the first one to pick up will come and help you. You should be aware that the VETS are providing a voluntary service. It is possible, though very unlikely, that none of them would be available. They are not like, for instance, the ambulance service which is bound to respond to your call. VETS can help in providing interim care and resuscitation if necessary until the emergency services arrive. It's essential to ring 999 first.

Attached to this issue of the Village News is an envelope containing a fridge magnet and two key fobs so that you can always have the VETS number immediately to hand. Please put them on your fridge door or your key ring NOW and make sure everybody in your household knows about the defibrillator and the VETS number.

If you have any queries please contact Councillor Josephine Collis on or email her at josephinecollis@gmail.com for more information. Remember that if you are with somebody who is unconscious or appears not to be breathing, the speed of your response can make a critical difference to their chances of survival.

1. Dial 999 from the emergency telephone on the defibrillator or any other telephone
2. Ring the VETS Emergency number from your mobile or any other telephone (the telephone on the defibrillator is only for 999 calls) or
3. Start using the defibrillator pack yourself following the step by step audio instructions, which are part of the package, until the emergency services arrive.

News from the parish council

No news this month as the June meeting was cancelled because of the general election. The next meeting will be on 13 July at 7.00.

Moulton matters

Best Kept Village Competition

The competition will be judged during the first two weeks of July. Good luck in keeping the village neat and tidy for the judging. The MVA has funded the attractive tubs around the village and a number of residents have "adopted" barrels and will be keeping an eye on them. Thanks to all who volunteered to spruce up benches, notice boards, the paper box and the bus shelter together with those who keep our verges looking good throughout the year.

Books in the Bus Shelter

The sale of books and CDs in the bus shelter during May and June raised £51.73. Thanks to all who have supported the village.

Good quality fiction books are always welcome. Please leave them in the bus shelter. All proceeds will go towards Moulton Village Association funds.

Community Speed Watch

Unfortunately, we have had insufficient volunteers to enable this initiative to go ahead. If anyone wishes to get involved, please contact John Gentry.

Church Cleaning:

Thanks to all who have volunteered to clean St Andrew's.

July: Mr and Mrs Whitehead

August: Mrs Osbaldeston

September: Mrs Atkinson and Mrs Vaux

Grenfell Fire Appeal

The Grenfell Fire Appeal is the charity due to benefit from the quiz at The Shoulder of Mutton on Wednesday 28 June. If you have missed the quiz but would like to contribute to this charity which has touched the hearts and minds of so many, Dorothy Logan is holding open donations until Friday 7 July. There will be a tin in the Post Office if you would like to contribute.

Over the past year, we have given the Village Shop and Post Office a complete makeover, and feedback from our customers says you are well pleased. But, we need your support to sustain this valuable facility, which offers a great service and is a vital asset to the village.

We need you to help as follows:

7. To use the shop – it's been said before, if everyone in the village spent just £5 a week, the shop would be forever financially secure.
8. To tell us what you want us to stock – if you commit to buy an item regularly, we will stock it. What's more, in many instances we can match or even beat high street prices if we have the right volume of sales.
9. To become a volunteer – if you can commit to just 2 or 3 hours a week, it would be a huge help.
10. To join the Management Committee – we welcome anyone who has enthusiasm and good ideas – no experience needed.

Can you? will you? commit to sharing in supporting our community shop? If so contact Steve Hill on 01325377700 or speak to Helen on 01325377434 or to Liz or Helen in the shop.

The Memorial Hall still needs a secretary

If you have a couple of hours a week to spare and would like to make a small but important contribution to village life as well as get to know people and have some fun, joining The Memorial Hall Committee as Secretary could be just what you are looking for.

Ring Ken Etherington 377605, Jenny Ruston 377800 or contact Dorothy Logan at the Post Office to have a chat about what's involved.

Art and Crafts Group

As well as our 'Knit for Peace' endeavours, some of us are sewing backpacks (a Soroptimist initiative) to send to Mary's Meals, a Scottish charity, set up in 2002, that is helping the world's poorest communities, where hunger and poverty prevent children from gaining an education.

Zipped pencil cases are currently being sewn. Items to fill them would be welcome - such as pencils, crayons, biros, erasers, rulers, sharpeners, notepads. They don't necessarily have to be brand new so long as they are in good condition.

Toothbrushes, towels and soap(small bars of the type provided in hotels would be ideal) are suggested too.

Thank you.

Police report

There has been an increase in garage / shed breaks across the area so please be vigilant and report anything suspicious. There were three people arrested in May whom we suspect are responsible for some of these crimes.

Borderwatch

May I draw your attention to Borderwatch. For those of you who don't know what it is we have volunteers who give up their free time and come out in their own vehicles on a night for a few hours to observe and record any suspicious vehicles or people around the Richmond rural area. This includes all of the villages mentioned on this report. This month the Borderwatch volunteers have given up 24hrs of their time to help keep our communities safe by reporting suspicious vehicles and activity to myself whilst

Property marking

The PCSO's and I have access to a property marking machine called a DOT PEEN machine. It's a really great piece of kit that will mark most surfaces and is good for leather saddles, power tools, gardening tools, farm tools, cycles and also some computers and mobile phones. We mark the property with a post code or something similar. Please email me if you're interested in having any property marked and I can arrange a time to do it. The best option is to email me with a contact number.

Bark in the Park has grown and grown and now it includes a Village Fete. It's been a quite a few years since the village has held a fete and we are looking forward to its revival. We hope to see you all there for a fun day out and to join us for the various activities we have planned. Rishi Sunak will be coming to hand out the prizes to our overall winners and the raffle. We may even be able to talk him into judging one of the dog show classes. There is a cocktail bar coming for cool refreshments if the hot weather continues, along with the usual tea and coffee and, of course, our BBQ.

There are lots of kids' games planned and a bouncy castle, along with other small business stall holders. Please come and support the village and help raise funds for new equipment for the village play park.

If you would like to get involved on the day let me know: the more volunteers the better and if you enjoy baking we would be glad for any donations towards the cake stall. We would also be very glad of tombola and raffle prizes.

Follow us on facebook – Bark in the Park Middleton Tyas and please share the event with everyone you know.

Do you live on School Bank?

Rod and Carol Denham are stepping down from delivering the Village News to houses on School Bank after sixteen years. Very many thanks to them for doing it for so long. That's something like 9,000 copies of the Village News that have been posted through letter boxes on School Bank and Cow Lane at no cost to the householders. It's quite an achievement.

You can guess what's coming next! I urgently need someone to deliver the Village News to houses on School Bank and Cow Lane. Copies are delivered to your house and there are about 45 copies in total.

If you would be willing to do this, starting with the September issue, which will be out in late August, please give me a ring on 377311.

(You don't have to live on School Bank. I'd be delighted to hear from anyone in the village who feels they could manage an hour's stroll around the houses once a month.)

Charlie: musings from the Rectory hound.

I trotted along the boundaries of the rectory garden. All in order: check. I inspected the bird feeders to see if they were full and needed un-filling: done. I loped upstairs to sneak under a duvet: door closed – foiled again. I sat at the front window so I could bark at possible threats to the dog biscuit container: nothing to bark at – all quiet. I gave Samson the greyhound a poke with my snout to encourage a reaction: I got a snort followed by a snore. I ambled into the study and swiped the biscuit-buyer with my paw: nothing.

Never let it be said that I am a dog who gives up easily. The weak link in the chain was always Jen. I sidled to the back of her desk chair: "WOOF!!!!!" Her coffee mug flew upwards, the contents of which arched through the air and covered both me and the latest sermon notes in cold, black liquid. The biscuit-buyer was not amused. "What, Charlie? What do you want?" I decided that asking for a towel to remove the coffee would be pushing things a bit. "BORED!!!!" I yapped.

The biscuit-buyer appeared unsympathetic to my cause as I watched her attempting to rescue her latest musings on the Gospel of Matthew. "Go and do something constructive, Charlie", she said. "There's always something to do." She reeled off a list of stuff, none of which really caught my attention or inspired me: replacing the soil in the hole I'd just dug in the garden; practicing my obedience skills for 'Bark in the Park'; putting back the books I'd carefully taken from bookshelves and rearranged around the house....

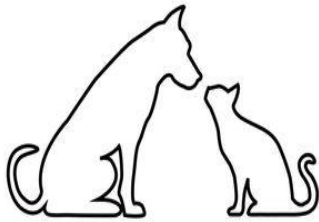

"OK Charlie, let me finish this and I'll be with you. Give me 10 minutes. In the meantime, find a quiet place, close your eyes and see if you are given some Divine inspiration to enable you to fill your time constructively". Success! I'd be out of that front door and looking for rabbits within the hour.

So come along!

Charlie: Musings from the Rectory Hound
continues

And so, having succeeded in my mission, I took the biscuit-buyer's advice. I closed my eyes, and concentrated: "Go on then God, give me a clue.

How should I fill my time?" And then inspiration took hold. Of course! Something constructive.

I shot out of the lounge, into the kitchen and started dragging food items out of cupboards. I ran upstairs and raided the wardrobe. I galloped around the garden digging up partially buried dog toys..... and proceeded to pile up my treasures in the hall.

The door opened and the biscuit-buyer appeared,
wiping a missed coffee-splatter from dog collar.
"Dare I even ask?", she said. "It's a construction.
I'm being constructive. They're items for doggies and their owners who need a helping hand." The biscuit-buyer looked rather taken aback.
"Charlie", she said, "are you telling me that you took my advice?!" "Maybe....", I muttered. "Well that's really good Charlie, but I can't see any dog biscuits, just tins of beans and a packet of rice..."

"Oh come on", I thought. "There's a limit....."
