St. Michael's Majors July

We are not having a tea due to holidays.

St. Michael's Majors.
August

We are having our outing this month, please all note that it will be on Thursday the 9th
which is the second Thursday and we will be in touch about travel arrangements nearer the time.

Had a bit of space, so a bit of
my favourite poem:

*We are not now that strength
which in old days moved earth and heaven, that which we are, we are. One equal temper of heroic hearts.
Made weak by time and fate,
but strong in will. To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.*

Ulysses
Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Moulton Plant Sale

We raised the wonderful sum of £1329.62 at the Plant sale and afterwards from sales of plants and tools in the bus shelter. A very big THANK YOU!! to everyone. This year the proceeds will be divided equally between Moulton Village Association and St Andrew's Church.

Books in the Bus Shelter

The sale of books and CDs the bus shelter during May raised £66.10. Thanks to all who have supported the village.

Good quality fiction books are always welcome. Please leave them in the bus shelter.

All proceeds will go towards Moulton Village Association funds.

Best Kept Village Competition

The competition will be judged during the first two weeks of July. Good luck in keeping the village neat and tidy for the judging. The MVA has funded the attractive tubs around the village, now with their new plants and a number of residents have "adopted" barrels and will be keeping an eye on them.

Thanks to all who volunteered to spruce up benches, notice boards, the paper box and the bus shelter together with those who keep our verges looking good throughout the year. If you have spare moment to sweep pavements and collect any litter – that will be much appreciated. We hope to have the road sweeper in the village ahead of judging.

Litter pickers may be collected from the Chairman.

Remembrance 2018

The Moulton Village Association together with St Andrew's Church, is planning a special commemoration on 11 November at 6.00 pm. Our two soldiers remembered on the war memorial will be recognised and we plan a small exhibition during the week before Remembrance Sunday of WW1 memorabilia. If you have any items that you are prepared to loan to the village for the exhibition, please contact Sara Vaux (377228). Following the service a Parish Supper will be provided. Donations will be invited for Phoenix House, Catterick Garrison – Help for Heroes.

Local Access Road

A meeting will be held in the Church at 1030 on Saturday 30 June for residents who have volunteered to participate in a traffic survey which it is hoped will be conducted during July. More volunteers are always welcome and if you wish to get involved, please contact John Gentry.

Church Cleaning:

Thanks to all who have volunteered to clean St Andrew's.

Poldark's back, taking me back to my Cornish roots, which is obviously the only reason I watch it. How did we do without thee for so long? There's also some sort of football competition on... Anyway, whatever it is you like to relax with on the telly, don't forget we have all sorts of lovely nibbles available for while you're doing it!

My first thank you this month is a great big one to Stu Davies, who has been helping out for the last few months. He has proved invaluable and that extra pair of hands has allowed us to get on with other stuff that we don't always have time to do in shop hours, halved the time it takes to do the cash and carry run (and lug it all inside and get it out on the shelves), and generally taken the pressure off a bit! We will be sad to see him go and wish him all our best for the future.

Thanks also this month to Chris and Pauline who donated a huge amount of carrier bags and to Jenny who gave us plants for us to sell for donations to the shop. Keep an eye out for more plants being available as we get further into summer. And don't forget to check out our second-hand books for reading in your deckchair when you're done with the gardening.

Did you know that we have over 140 different items of price-marked stock? I didn't until Stu counted them for me (I didn't say helping out was exciting!). This means that the price has been set by the manufacturer and is printed on the packaging. Liz and I will stock price-marked whenever we can, one reason being is to hopefully dispel the myth that because the shop is small, it must overcharge. And whenever we can, we will put a price down from Recommended Retail Price to whatever Sainsburys charges for the identical product.

This summer we are stocking Piriteze as well as all our usual medications – Calpol, Nurofen, Paracetamol, cold remedies, luke-warm remedies and hot remedies for when I'm watching Poldark.

Our summer raffle will be ready soon, drawing at the end of August. For a £1 ticket you could be in with a chance to win a hamper full of lovely goodies.

Mary Parvin is getting ready to do the Lake District Mighty Hike on 14 July so there's still time to have a go at guessing the time she will take to win a Christmas Cake baked by her own fair hands. Nearer Christmas obviously, because she needs that much time to recover (only joking Mary). It's for a great cause so pop in the shop and have a go. We wish her lots of luck and I personally hope that she takes about 10 hours...

And at the very end, yes, we're still looking for a Chair to head our Shop Committee.

Helen

News from the Parish Council

The Middleton Tyas Parish Council meet on 14th June in the Memorial Hall. Minutes of the meeting will be posted on the Village Website www.middletontyas.org.uk in due course.

Speeding initiative - We are still looking for volunteers to help with this in the Village as we are unable to move this forward without additional support. Please contact Cllr Gordon Davies on (01325) 377450 if you are able to offer any time to help us with this.

A66 Upgrade - Attendance at a recent meeting confirms that, although this widening scheme will proceed, it is not intended to begin until 2023. It will be another year before we know what is definitely planned.

Work on Shopping Outlet - Residents have been asking us to confirm the details. Work is expected to begin on this development in January next year.

Bark in the Park - Further details are in this copy of the Village News. More volunteers are needed to help with all kinds of activities both on the day and in advance. Please contact Cllr Leanne Harknett if you can offer any help with this fun event taking place here in our Village on July 14th on (01325) 377321.

Next Meeting - The next meeting will be held on 12 July in the Memorial Hall at 7.10pm. Everyone is welcome.

Council.

ORE-SOME COPPER BELLES W.I.

The June meeting gave us ladies an opportunity to 'turn back the clock', with Temple Spa award winning spa and beauty products. Judging by the turn out, plenty of us were keen to do so! The Temple Spa brand was born out of a love of the Mediterranean. A small business, they pride themselves on the quality of their products and ingredients. Everything is cruelty free and 10% of profits are donated to charities. Vicci Pace began the evening by getting us nicely relaxed, with a calming mist and hot face cloths, then she took us gently through the process of face and neck cleansing, toning, massaging and moisturising, with an array of divine smelling, sprays, creams and oils. We also took it in turns to give each other a hand massage, using a choice of oils, depending on the mood we wanted to create. I'm sure the village hall has never smelt so good! Thanks to Vicci, who gave her time for free. The next meeting is Tuesday 10th July at 7.15pm and if you've ever fancied having a go at Belly Dancing, here's your chance ... or you could just watch the rest of us! Even though we've been up and running for some time now, it's never too late to join. We are welcoming new members every month. You can even 'try before you buy' at £5 a session. Follow us on Facebook at Ore-some Copper Belles WI.

Beat the Drum.

Friday, 12th October " Beat the Drum " at St. Michael & All Angels Church
Middleton Tyas.
7.00 pm for 7.30 pm.

To commemorate the centenary of the end of WW1 there will be a performance of " Beat the Drum " by Steve and Carol Robson, Acoustic Musicians. They tell a story of a Durham Miner who goes to fight in France during the First World War. The story is told in music and words and old film with audience participation. A real insight into the times of this conflict.
Tickets £7.00 each.

The trials and tribulations of Charlie, the Rectory canine.

It would appear that the latest spell of good weather has spurred the biscuit-buyer into action. I awoke from my mid-morning nap and wandered into the study to find, what looked to be, a paper explosion. Every available service had developed 'paper piles'. The filing cabinet drawers were open and Bach, the smallest terrorist of the canine pack was only visible by his tail which was poking out from under ten-years-worth of sermons.... Had the biscuit-buyer taken the phrase 'bible-bashing' to a literal level?

"De-cluttering Charlie", she said. "It's good for the home and the soul. I cannot believe how much rubbish I've accumulated! No wonder I have trouble focusing on the here and now." I enquired as to whether the weather had bought about this turn of activity. "I've just read a book about Christianity and mindfulness – it's fascinating and made me realise that being present in the here and now is important. In the words of the author Tim Stead, "(practising mindfulness) is the gateway to the present moment – where God is making space for Him and us".

The biscuit-buyer had been reading. This was never a good sign and inevitably led to trouble. "Speaking of de-cluttering", she said, "I found a hoard of sticks, feathers and stones stashed down the back of the sofa", she said. I was alarmed. "My treasures!", and flew into the lounge in a cloud of dog hair. "What have you done with them?", I wailed pitifully. Years of squirrel-watching have taught me that treasure is to be buried. Sofas are for burying things in, and I have acquired some particularly interesting stones. "I like my stones. I play with my stones. Sometimes I feel as if my stones are my only friends". This was Oscar-winning stuff. I almost included a pretend faint for good measure. "Charlie, your stones are next to your other favourite thing, the fire. However the bits of twig and mangy feather are in the bin." "Violated!!", I wailed. And stomped off.

Later, the biscuit-buyer sought me out to make peace. "Charlie-dog, I love you. Sometimes it's important to weed out stuff that we no longer need. Sometimes we need to do this both physically and mentally. The past is the past. We can put the physical stuff in bin bags or give any useful bits to charity. Mentally that's not so easy, but giving unresolved issues to God for Him to worry about can really help. Here.... I found a stone which I'd thought you like". "I don't think God would be interested in my thoughts", I muttered, still feeling bruised. "God is interested in all of His creation Charlie, whether you feel worthy, or not."

I hope He's not too interested in the spare bed, I thought. There's half a brick and a peach stone buried there.....
